

Recorderfest in the West

September 18–21, 2014

Recorder lovers are invited to a national festival of events celebrating the 75th anniversary of the American Recorder Society “ARSis75” and the 10th anniversary of the Recorder Music Center at Regis

University. The organizers are Regis University, the Denver ARS Chapter (www.denverrecordersociety.org), and the national ARS Board of Directors. This weekend event will be held at Regis University. Recorderfest will have some very attractive events offering a wide range of recorder experiences:

- A workshop of coached playing sessions, masterclasses, and other educational opportunities from first-rate professional musicians including:

Vicki Boeckman

Mark Davenport

Clea Galhano

Paul Leenhouts

Hanneke
van Proosdij

Nina Stern

Tom Zajac

- A Friday evening concert by the Baroque Chamber Orchestra of Colorado (with soloist Paul Leenhouts).
- A Saturday evening all-star faculty recital.
- A celebratory dinner with the ARS Board and some of the other visitors.
- A reception and exhibit put on by the Recorder Music Center.
- The Fall meeting of the National ARS Board will be held on site, with opportunities to meet them individually and provide input on ARS affairs. Part of this interaction may be held as a Town Hall meeting.
