

Name of Performer or Ensemble:	Farallon Recorder Quartet
Contact Person:	Letitia Berlin
Address:	806 Washington Ave., Albany, CA 94706
Email Address:	tishberlin@sbcglobal.net
Website:	farallonrecorderquartet.com
What kinds of educational venues has this ensemble performed in?	K-12, Colleges/Universities, Music Workshops
How long have you been giving such presentations?	6 years +
Where do you give presentations?	Locally, Regionally and Nationally
Approximately how many presentations do you give each year?	4
Do you involve teachers, students or participants in your presentations?	Yes
Do you provide materials to teachers, students or participants in advance?	Yes
Do you charge for your presentations?	Yes: $1000 - $1500
How many members are in your group/musical ensemble?	4
How many members in your group play recorder?	4
How many members in your group are professional recorder players? *	4
How many in your group teach recorder privately?
Are you or your group qualified to teach music educators (e.g. in recorder workshops)?	Yes

* By "professional" we are using the term to include performers who fall into at least one of the following areas:

1. At least 10% of your annual income is generated from performing or teaching recorder;
2. You possess an accredited degree or diploma in performance from a music college or university;
3. You are recognized by your peers as a performer through concerts and/or recordings.

The Farallon Recorder Quartet gives inspiring performances of a vast and varied repertoire extending across time and genre. Bach and Gershwin, Ockeghem and Serocki; sedate, wild, sublime, Farallon Recorder Quartet does it all with style, reaching out to modern audiences in an accessible and exciting manner. Farallon's debut CD, a collection of sacred and secular works by the 16th century composer Ludwig Senfl, was released in 2005. The Farallon Recorder Quartet performs on numerous types of recorder from Renaissance to modern, from sopranino to contrabass, from 6 inches to 6 feet tall. While devoting much of their concert programs to Renaissance and Baroque music, Farallon Recorder Quartet is also active in performing 20th and 21st century music, both well established works, and newly composed pieces, some of which have been written for the ensemble.

Members of Farallon: Annette Bauer, Letitia Berlin, Frances Blaker, Louise Carslake

The Magical Recorder

Travel through time with the Farallon Recorder Quartet, as they weave a magical spell with their panoply of recorders ranging from the smallest of 6 inches to the largest of 7 feet tall.

The children will be invited to step back into time as the quartet teaches them to dance a bransle, and perhaps even play a duet with the quartet. From recent music showcasing surprising sounds to the mellifluous sounds of the Renaissance, the Farallon Recorder Quartet will change the way students and teachers think about the recorder forever.